

FAASTeam presents:

NEW Time: SoCal Debut: Master of Dead Stick Landing, Bob Hoovers' NEW Documentary & Rod Machado

This last minute event has been just finalized for your education and enjoyment! We open with the educational entertainment of Rod Machado: Laugh and Learn with Rod: Thinking Small to Avoid Big Mistakes will help you recognize the many small and localized cognitive errors pilots make that often lead to big—REALLY BIG!—mistakes in airplanes. Rod discusses the strategies necessary to deal with these issues. The big solution lies in thinking small to avoid big mistakes. Come prepared to have a great time learning about aviation safety!

And then, the southern California debut screening of the film: FLYING THE FEATHERED EDGE!

Consider this: R. A. 'Bob' Hoover, age 93, is considered by many to be our greatest living aviator. WWII fighter pilot, one of our best test pilots, an incomparable air show pilot, Bob Hoover has inspired generations of pilots and touched the trajectory of our modern aviation safety in many ways. Director Kim Furst captures every nuance of Bob's amazing life story by skillfully interweaving vintage still images, historic footage and testimonials from other pilot legends past and present, bringing this legend's life and story into a well-focused limelight through this
